

The following regulation was repealed, effective December 2020

NAC 625.350 Examinations: Reapplication after failure. (NRS 625.140, 625.390)

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 and NAC 625.360, an applicant who fails to pass an examination may reapply to take the examination:

(a) Within 12 months after the examination, by paying a fee for the examination which is based on the actual cost of the Board to:

(1) Purchase the examination from the National Council of Examiners for Engineering and Surveying; and

(2) Offer the examination.

(b) Twelve months or more after the examination, by:

(1) Submitting an updated application;

(2) Paying an application fee of $200; and

(3) Paying a fee for the examination which is based on the actual cost of the Board to:

(I) Purchase the examination from the National Council of Examiners for Engineering and Surveying; and

(II) Offer the examination.

2. Except as otherwise provided in NAC 625.360, if an applicant fails to pass an examination three times, the applicant may reapply to take the examination only if, in addition to satisfying the requirements set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection 1, the applicant furnishes proof that he or she has completed a refresher course in professional land surveying or the discipline of professional engineering in which the applicant is to be examined.
